Planning Birthday Party....

Hey Whatsup bro..

wow, Wish him happiest birthday. I do help you with planning.
I know he is diabetic.
we need to be careful

Hello Analyst, Today is my Dad's 50th Birthday and I am planing for it

PREPARE

Thanks, yes as per your suggestion! have maintained Data of his Monthly Sugar Test Reports from Dignostic Center, Daily Sugar check up records, His Medicine Tracker and Fitness tracker. And yes his diet schedule as well.

Thats Great,
Show Me File Lei
Show Me Fi

Here Its is for You process

- 3 Months Diagnostic Lab Report
- 6 Months Medicine Tracker
- 2 Months Diet Plan
- 6 Months Fitness App data

yes, here are the insights

- His sugar is within acceptbale limit as per Dignostic Report and Glucometer Readings
- Medicine tracker shows he takes his medicine daily on time without missing any single day
- If we ignore first week, he is consistantly following his diet from the last two months
- And you will be happy to know that he is consistently following his exercise as per his fitness app

Wow, Lets Have Party Then

Sure, But First
Share this insights with your family
doctor

The Way you analyze the data I can Surely Say enjoy party but don't forget to check sugar before and after the party with a glucometer. In case of any emergency I am just call away

Thank you so much Doctor

ACT

good, Now Enjoy the party. But don't Forget to ACT as per doctor's advise. And also I would recommend to personally monitor his daily sugar with glucometer, Fitness app, Medicine tracker and Next month Dingnostic Report.
